8. (Confidential - JMM) Called Mr. Courtney Pace, in the office of Senator James O. Eastland, who said the Senator was expected back tomorrow afternoon and I could probably see the Senator sometime on Thursday.

9. (Internal Use Only - LLM) Called Ralph Devlin, Staff Assistant, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, concerning the prospects of the so-called 80 Point Retirement Program introduced by Representative Dominick Daniels (D., N.J.). He explained the background and although it is too early to make a firm prediction, he felt the prospects for passage were dim.

10. (Internal Use Only - LLM) Called [REDACTED] General Counsel, NSA, to learn his views on the draft bill by the Civil Service Commission on maximum age requirements for entrance on duty. [REDACTED] was unfamiliar with the proposal which is now in the OMB clearance process and intimated that he had a number of other issues now running with CSC.

11. (Internal Use Only - PLC) Based on my discussion with [REDACTED] I called J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Subcommittee on Internal Security, Committee on the Judiciary, and informed him that the Agency had not made a security review of a proposed book by Ernest Halperin, MIT, entitled "The National Liberation Movements in Latin America." Nor, was there any other Agency involvement. I informed Sourwine that there was a paper by Halperin, on the same subject written in June, 1969 for the Center for International Studies, MIT, and that a copy could be procured through the State Department. Sourwine requested that I secure a copy for him.
